

- 3 次の英文を読んで、以下の問い（問1，問2）に答えなさい。

Last summer Noriko learned an important thing from her *experience.

She is a third year student of a junior high school in Okayama. She is in the volunteer club. She has done many things with the members of the club for people who need help from others. But last summer was *special for her.

Every summer the students in the club do something as volunteers. Noriko and the other members learned how to use a computer at school. They also studied many things about *the disabled. They wanted to help those people. So Noriko said to the members, "We can do something for them by using a computer." But they didn't know what they should do.

One day their teacher of the club said to them, "Do you know *Braille? Braille is *a kind of printing which *blind people can read by touching it. By using a computer we can make something which can help blind people."

*Software for Braille was found on the Internet. Then their teacher said to them, "What kind of thing shall we *put into Braille?" They talked and talked. At last one student said, "Let's make *a postcode book in Braille, because it is very difficult for blind people to send a letter without a postcode book which they can read." Every student agreed.

They needed many days to finish making a postcode book written in Braille. It was very difficult for them to learn how to write in Braille. At the end of the summer vacation they finished putting the postcode into Braille. They sent the postcode book to the people who helped the disabled.

Some weeks later, her club got ① a letter written in Braille from a man who used the postcode book they made. When she read the letter, she became happy.

② That night she wrote in her diary about the important thing that she learned from this.

*experience 経験	*special 特別な	*the disabled 身体障害者
*Braille 点字	*a kind of printing 一種の活字	*blind 目の不自由な
*software (コンピュータの) ソフトウェア	*put A into B AをBに翻訳する
*a postcode book 郵便番号簿

問1 下線部①の点字の手紙の内容はどのようなものだったか、あなた自身が考えて英語で書きなさい。

問2 下線部②の日記を Noriko さんになったつもりで英語で書きなさい。